

Taste of the Outback

SHORTS OUTBACK FILM FESTIVAL & BUSH OPERA 2 DAYS

For one night only, Shorts Film Festival and the Prairie Hotel will present the popular Shorts Outback.

City pick-up 06:45 from Bowen Street (Adelaide Central Bus Station)

Day 1 - Your adventure takes you north into the wine region of the Clare Valley. On your way, you will travel through old towns with quaint cottages and historic buildings. At Clare, you have an opportunity to visit one of the fine boutique wineries in this region. The legendary lilac haze of the Flinders Ranges looms ever closer and you are now in the habitat of Australia's famous wildlife – not only kangaroos and emus live here in abundance, but also many species of birds and reptiles. We continue on through vast sheep station country into the heart of the Flinders Ranges. There will be rest stop to buy lunch (own expense) at Quorn, the home to the famous Pichi Richi steam train, which still runs on the original Ghan tracks. Continue to Parachilna travelling via the Moralana Scenic Drive. Arrive in Parachilna by 4.30pm.

O/n – own arrangements

Day 2 – Depart Parachilna mid morning to travel to the Bush Opera (Own expense) in Pichi Richi Park. After the concert, follow alongside the Old Ghan Railway track through the Pichi Richi Pass to spectacular views of the Spencer Gulf and Port Augusta. As you travel along the coastal road you will see the old ports and seaside towns that were so important in the development of this region. The countryside slowly changes as you approach Adelaide, but the memory of the raw majesty that is the Flinders Ranges will remain with you
